

Recent Spanish Cinema Los Angeles 2015 Announces First Lineup of Films

The Institute of Cinematography and Audiovisual Arts of Spain (ICAA) alongside the American Cinematheque and EGEDA, announced the 21st edition of Recent Spanish Cinema series, a showcase of the most outstanding recent Spanish films at the Egyptian Theatre. The film screenings will take place October 15-18, 2015. This year the producers of this annual film series will collaborate with Spanish Filmmaker, journalist, writer and producer Guillermo Fesser, who has created the poster and the promo spot with theme “Let your Spanish side out” bringing his sense of humor and unique Spanish style to the marketing campaign. READ MORE: MiamiFF Review: 'Marshland' is a Provocative...

[[This is a content summary only. Visit my website for full links, other content, and more!]]

Read the complete post at

<http://feedproxy.google.com/~r/indieWIREFestivals/~3/2R41p8m74LQ/recent-spanish-cinema-los-angeles-2015-announces-first-lineup-of-films-20150907>

Posted Mon, Sep 7 2015 8:30 AM by Festivals