Recent Spanish Cinema: Truman, Thursday, 13. October 2016, Los Angeles

The Los Angeles premiere of Spain's 5-time Goya Award-winner (including Best Film), TRUMAN kicks off the 22nd Annual Recent Spanish Cinema Showcase. A reception follows the screening.

Los Angeles Premiere!

TRUMAN

2015, FilmRise, 108 min, Dir: Cesc Gay

Winner of five Goya Awards including Best Film, this thought-provoking take on mortality stars Ricardo Darín as Julian, a working actor who has just received a diagnosis of terminal cancer. When old buddy Tomas (Javier Camara) arrives to visit, he finds Julian more concerned about the fate of his dog, Truman. "Cesc Gay's wise, wistful and well-observed film about two friends enjoying a final reunion in the shadow of impending death is by turns amusing and affecting — and quite often both at once.” - Joe Leydon, Variety. In Spanish and English with English subtitles.

Presented in collaboration with the Institute of Cinematography and Audiovisual Arts of Spain (ICAA) of the Spanish Ministry of Education, Culture and Sport; EGEDA (Audiovisual Producers Rights Management Association) and the American Cinematheque, with the support of Spain Arts and Culture, Embassy of Spain in Washington, Spain USA Foundation, Consulate General of Spain in Los Angeles, Tourist Office of Spain in Los Angeles, USC Dornsife, The Trade Commission of Spain in Los Angeles and Filmotech. Sponsored by Cobalto Art Center, Wint & Lila, Indidrinks, Lolea and Huberts Lemonade.

Program begins with the winning entry of the New Filmmakers From Spain short film contest. Reception following the feature in the courtyard for all ticket holders.
